

Accounting Deputy Manager (M/F)

(Permanent position, France)

Do you wish to be an Accounting Deputy Manager? Are you interested in leading a team? Do you want to support a core business in Research? Do you see yourself as organised and autonomous? Find out more about the Accounting Deputy Manager position that we are offering!

In your position, you will lead the accounting team of 5 people, as part of the Finance and Administration Department. You will support the other company departments, bringing your expertise at managing costs.

You will be involved as a key member in consolidating our financial information for the EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa) headquarter and worldwide requirements.

What will you do?

Reporting actual and budget: On a regular basis (month, semester, year), you will insure the reliability of the general and analytical accountancy, as well as the budget projections. You will also consolidate the data received from our sister companies from the EMEA area.

Management & Coordination: as an ERP key user, you will work in close collaboration with other departments on projects and IT Systems. You will participate in the optimization of the financial workflows, internally and externally.

As a manager, you will support the members of your team to help them improve and develop themselves, and to reach the service objectives.

Where will you work?

You will be in Uchaud (30), between Nîmes and Montpellier, at Sakata Vegetables EMEA headquarter. You will interact daily with the entire EMEA region. Therefore, a good level of English is needed!

You will be part of the 12 members of the Finance and Administration Department, and you will work in close collaboration with other teams, in Business control and financial consolidation, among others.

Do you fit this profile?

You have a master's degree level qualification, preferably in Finance and Accounting. With at least 10 years' experience in a similar position, and ideally, you have already worked in certified accounting.

You desire to work in an international environment, and you have the capacity to adapt yourself to different cultures. You have a professional level of English (reading, writing, and speaking).

In a management role, you demonstrate excellent communication and teamwork skills, as well as accuracy and ability to synthesize.

Do you want to know more about the company?

You will be part of Sakata Vegetables EMEA team, which is part of the SAKATA Group. What makes SAKATA different is that while being a key international player in the seed business, the company has retained a family spirit.

It is a people-oriented company where it is easy to communicate at all levels. As a result of its Japanese origins, it is a stable company with an emphasis on long-term culture.

What are the next steps?

1. Send us your application (Resume & Cover letter) to recruitment.veg@sakata.eu before 30/11/2024
2. First contact with Charlotte (HR Business Partner)
3. Interview with Charlotte, Patricia and Neil (Accounting service)
4. Final interview with Philippe and Kais (Finance and Administration department)
